Called to LEAD - Amazing Alumni

Cecilia Godinez graduated from St. Peter the Apostle Catholic School in 2013 after attending from 4th to 8th grade. After graduating St. Peters, Cecilia went to a public high which she noted that she was well prepared for school. Following high school graduation, Cecilia started her next chapter at MiraCosta College studying Early Childhood Development. She has goals to continue her education with plans of achieving a Master's Degree to become a Preschool Director one day.

Cecilia recalled how her Catholic Education prepared her for her future by teaching her, "how to enjoy the little moments God has placed in my life. No matter what life throws at you we should remember to let go and let God and do what you do with love". Additionally she participated in the Spanish Kids Choir and was an altar server for about 8 years. She credits this to helping shape where she is in her faith today. "Because of my faith, I am now the Preschool Lead teacher in St. Peter's. I was blessed to have gone through Catholic education first at St. Peters".

She reflected deeply about her time at St. Peters and took the time to thank our Parish community and Catholic school for shaping who she is now. "They believed in me and gave me the opportunity to share my faith by becoming a catholic school teacher. I have had the best mentors who have helped guide me and prepare me to be the confident teacher I am now".

Her current advice to students today is to, "keep trying, all you have to do is try and believe in yourself, that through God, all things are possible. You are so lucky to be able to not only be academically challenged, but to be able to put God first in your studies. Pray about everything, take a deep breath, and have fun!"

Men's Prayer Breakfast

All men of the parish are invited to the Men's Prayer Breakfast Saturday, September 5. The morning begins with Mass at 7:30am, followed by a hearty breakfast and a speaker in the parish hall. Our guest speaker will be Father Dibeashi. This is an opportunity to meet friends new and old. Bring a friend and enjoy the company of other men as we pray and share together.
