MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Todos dependemos de los regalos que Dios nos da, y uno de ellos es el banquete que nos tiene preparado. Solo necesitamos el vestido de fiesta. Sin este, no somos dignos de entrar al banquete y disfrutar de su elegancia y distinción.

¿Dónde se encuentra ese vestido? ¿En qué tienda lo podemos comprar? Ese traje tan especial solo lo podemos encontrar en el Evangelio, diseñado con las enseñanzas de Jesús. Su corte y confección incluyen responsabilidad, justicia, bondad y paz; y, por supuesto, debemos portarlo con alegría en los compromisos de cada día: en la familia, con los amigos y en la comunidad parroquial y del vecindario que nos rodea. En su tiempo, Jesús fue rechazado por los sacerdotes, escribas y fariseos, pues ellos no admitían la nueva imagen del Dios misericordioso que les mostraba el Hijo de Dios. Invitar al banquete y vestir de fiesta es para todos.

"La Iglesia está llamada a ir a las encrucijadas de hoy, es decir, a las periferias geográficas y existenciales de la humanidad: esos lugares marginales, esas situaciones en las que se encuentran y viven fragmentos de humanidad sin esperanza. Se trata de no apoltronarse en las formas cómodas y habituales de evangelización y testimonio de la caridad, y de abrir las puertas de nuestro corazón y de nuestras comunidades a todos, porque el Evangelio no está reservado a unos pocos elegidos... Todos son considerados por Dios dignos de su amor. Él prepara el banquete para todos" (Papa Francisco, 10-11-2020).

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Some friends invited me to one of the most famous and expensive restaurants in the country. I was grateful and eager to go. One invited friend even flew from another state for the experience. Every bite and sip was truly memorable and delicious. But my friends' teenage children spent much of the time on their phones, complained about the food, and generally ignored the once-in-a-lifetime experience.

I wanted to yell, "C'mon, you guys! Look what you're missing!" In today's parable, Jesus describes people invited to an amazing wedding feast who respond with inexplicable indifference. He says, "Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business" (Matthew 22:5). The problem is not that they choose evil but that they allow other desires to distract them from an amazing opportunity. The feast is prepared, but their hearts are elsewhere. In Christ Jesus, God offers each of us a wildly extravagant offer: a place at the wedding banquet between heaven and earth. What are your current excuses for the delay in engaging with Jesus? How are you postponing a deepening of your relationship with him under the guise of responsibility? The good news is that the feast is ready. His invitation remains. Hear the Lord say to us, "C'mon, guys! Look what you're missing!" Then respond with concrete action.

World Mission Sunday

The beatification of Archbishop Fulton Sheen on September 24 was a great gift to the Church in the United States.

While many know him best for his TV presence, books and charismatic eloquence, he repeatedly said, "My greatest love has always been for the missions of the Church."

He is the greatest National Director of the Pontifical Mission Societies in the history of the Church, helping raise $200 million (in today's money, $2.1 billion) to support the growth of the Church. Under his leadership (1950-1966), World Mission Sunday became a defining moment in the life of the Church in the United States.

We can surely count on his intercession for World Mission Sunday 2026, which will take place next week on October 18, as we together reflect upon, pray for and take a collection to support the missions. Blessed Fulton Sheen, pray for us!

Ahora rezamos el Santo Rosario juntos en la iglesia 30

Domingo Mundial de las Misiones

La beatificación del arzobispo Fulton Sheen, el 24 de septiembre, fue un gran regalo para la Iglesia en los Estados Unidos. Aunque muchos lo recuerdan por su presencia en televisión, sus libros y su extraordinaria elocuencia, él repetía con frecuencia: "Mi mayor amor siempre ha sido por las misiones de la Iglesia". Fue el Director Nacional de las Obras Misionales Pontificias más destacado en la historia de la Iglesia, impulsando la recaudación de 200 millones de dólares (equivalentes hoy a unos 2100 millones) para apoyar el crecimiento de la Iglesia en los territorios de misión.
 Durante su servicio como Director Nacional (1950-1966), el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones se convirtió en un momento fundamental en la vida de la Iglesia en los Estados Unidos.
 Confiamos en su intercesión por el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones de 2026, que celebraremos la próxima semana, el 18 de octubre, cuando nos reuniremos para reflexionar, orar y colaborar con la colecta en favor de las las misiones.
 ¡Beato Fulton Sheen, ruega por nosotros!
