MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

"¿Quién subirá hasta el monte del Señor? ¿Quién podrá entrar en su recinto santo? El de corazón limpio y manos puras, y que no jura en falso." (Salmo 23). El salmo nos hace la pregunta y él mismo da la respuesta. El papa Francisco, durante su pontificado, nos recordaba constantemente que todos estamos llamados a la santidad. Por nuestro bautismo, estamos llamados a una profunda perfección en el amor.
Los santos vivieron ese camino de amor. La gracia de los sacramentos, especialmente el de la Reconciliación y la Eucaristía, les bastaba para seguir las bienaventuranzas del Evangelio de hoy, viviendo un camino de santidad. No es fácil, por supuesto, pero sí es posible poniendo siempre su esperanza en el Señor.
La santidad implica algo importante: ser sencillos y coherentes con el Evangelio, tratando todos los días de lograrlo.
Las Bienaventuranzas encierran el secreto de un nuevo modo de ser y de vivir, y solo a base de oración y entrega se logra ese camino de santidad. El mundo de hoy indica un camino totalmente contrario al mensaje del Evangelio: riqueza, viajes, moda y confort, olvidando que todo eso es pasajero y se queda aquí. "Los santos y los beatos son los testigos más autorizados de la esperanza cristiana, porque la han vivido plenamente en su existencia, entre alegrías y sufrimientos, poniendo en práctica las Bienaventuranzas que Jesús predicó y que hoy resuenan en la liturgia. Las Bienaventuranzas evangélicas son, en efecto, el camino de la santidad."
(Papa Francisco, 01-11-2020).

GOSPEL MEDITATION

At the end of her short life, my hero, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, found herself in a curious position. Audaciously, she was convinced that she would become a great saint and would be loved by many after her death. At the same time, she insisted that she was weak, impatient, and ordinary. She became arguably the greatest saint in modern times. How is it possible that an ordinary and imperfect person can also be a great saint?
On this All Saints' Day, Jesus overturns our assumptions about holiness. He says, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:3).
The blessed are not the impressive or the self-sufficient, but the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the persecuted. These are not heroic traits by normal standards.
They are signs of a heart that has learned to rely on God rather than itself. That's what St. Thérèse, and all the saints, are all about.
All Saints' Day is not a celebration of spiritual elites. Rather, it announces what grace can do in our ordinary lives. The saints are not those who avoid weakness or suffering, but those who allow these things to deepen their trust.
What good news for us! The smaller and weaker we are, the more qualified we are to be great saints.

- Father John Muir

Called to Lead - Amazing Alumni

Dylan Taitano graduated from St. Peter the Apostle Catholic School in 2017 since starting in Preschool. After graduating Grade 8 at St. Peters, Dylan went to Mission Vista High School. He states that St. Peters had prepared him for high school in many ways, "I was beyond prepared for my Math and English classes". Dylan Taitano graduated from Mission Vista High School in 2021 and chose to study Business at San Francisco State University.Dylan Taitano graduated in May 2025 with a Bachelors of Science in Business Administration. Congratulations!

He still carries the values instilled at St. Peter the Apostle Catholic School. Dylan credits St. Peter's with shaping his leader mindset through life, "we were always taught to step up and lead which prepared me for work and school". He shared that his Catholic Education prepared him for his future by offering many amazing opportunities to learn and grow. "The yearly science fair in sixth seventh and eighth grade taught me the skills to research and work through the scientific method. Most importantly, present my work to others and confidently back my idea".

His advice to current students at St. Peters is, "The process of school and doing your work on time prepares you for the work world. Your organization and accountability to complete your task on time will push you above other staff in a work environment. So while school work may feel unnecessary, it gives you two of the most important skills in life, problem solving and time management. "
